

REMARKS

By the forgoing amendment, the applicant has corrected a number of minor misspellings, etc. and amended the Summary of the Invention to delete reference to the method claims that had been cancelled pursuant to a restriction requirement.

It is also noted that the title indicated in the Notice of Allowance is the original title and not the title that was previously amended to eliminate reference to the method.

No new matter has been introduced.

Entry of this amendment before issuance is therefore respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
